

Christina's World and CMT

Sources and keynotes

Art Source:

1. MoMA – Museum of Modern Art, Manhattan, New York
(<https://www.moma.org/collection/works/78455>)

Sources saying she possibly had CMT :

1. LiveScience.com (<https://www.livescience.com/54671-christinas-world-painting-nervous-system-disorder.html>)
2. DailyMail.co.uk (<https://www.dailymail.co.uk/health/article-3576812/Mystery-disease-one-world-s-famous-paintings-solved-Crawling-woman-Christina-s-World-rare-nerve-condition-expert-claimS.html>)
3. Charcot-Marie-ToothNews.com (<https://charcot-marie-toothnews.com/2019/11/26/christinas-world-painting/>)

Keynotes:

1. The artwork was painted in 1948 by Andrew Wyeth
2. The name of the painting is “Christina’s World”
3. It is currently at the Museum of Modern Art in New York
4. Christina Olsen refused to use a wheelchair, preferring to walk.
5. Her condition was originally believed to be polio, but is now believed to be CMT.